Joseph C. Tremblay

(August 27, 1965 - June 25, 2024)

Joseph C. Tremblay, age 58, passed away unexpectedly on Tuesday, June 25, 2024 at his home in Lowell.

He was born in Lowell on August 27, 1965, son of Claire I. (Paquin) Tremblay of Lowell and the late Joseph A. Tremblay who passed away in 2007. Joe was a lifelong resident of Lowell and graduated from the Greater Lowell Technical High School, class of 1983.

He was employed as an oil burner technician for MacLellan Oil Company in Tewksbury where he worked for 35 years and also worked at Cox Fuel Company in Lowell earlier in his life.

Joe loved nothing more than spending time with his family and friends. He was the life of the party, enjoyed cookouts and was always the one behind the grill. He always had a smile on his face and was loved by all who knew him. He enjoyed traveling and spending time at the beach, the lake and going to concerts with his best friend, Shawna Martin. Joe was the “proprietor” of Sloppy Joey’s and the 4 Dips, which included himself, Scott Williams, Mark Riley and Joe Longtin. He was a lifelong member of the East End Club and volunteered much of his time and cooking skills for charitable events including Camp Paul and the East End Club Scholarship Foundation.

Besides his mother, Claire Tremblay of Lowell, he is survived by his two children, Joshua Tremblay and his partner Zachary Miller and Desirae Carr, as well as Shawna’s children, Andrea and Brianna, whom he considered his own. He also leaves his former wife and high school sweetheart, Raeanne Santos; his siblings, Donna Adams and her husband Raymond, Denise Kimball and her husband Larry, Robin Nightingale and her husband Peter and Danielle Johnson and her husband James; also aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews and many dear friends. He was predeceased by Joseph Correia and George “Buddy” King, Jr.

Arrangements – Family and friends are invited to celebrate Joe’s life at the M. R. Laurin & Son Funeral Home, 295 Pawtucket Street, Lowell on Tuesday, July 2 from 12 until 3pm. IN LIEU OF FLOWERS, please consider making a donation in Joe’s memory to your favorite charity.
